Provider-Difficult Questions

1. How difficult is it to find good employees?

2. How difficult is it to keep good employees?

3. How much is it costing you to find, onboard, train and retain employees?

Employment Costs

According to a study by the Institute for the Future of Aging Services (IFAS) estimates $2500 per employee in direct costs (hiring and training) to replace a direct care worker.

Employment Costs

- Lost productivity until a replacement is trained
- Reduced service quality
- Lost client revenues and/or reimbursement
- Lost clients
- Negative impact on employee morale

Employment Issues

One study found for home health providers that there is a

to 60

percent turnover rate, with 80 to

90 percent leaving their employer

within the first year. (IFAS)

The Results

Massive amounts of paperwork

Massive amounts of paper

Massive amounts of time

Delay of providing services

Distraction from training and orientation

The Results

Provide a great first impression
Are ready when they arrive for training and orientation
They are on the job faster, improving care and billing
Ease the burden on current
HR employees

Focus less on formalities and more on creating better first days!

MANAGEMENT

Two Largest Paper Intensive

- Applicant Tracking Processes
 - Paper applications
 - Hiring workflow process
- Employee Onboarding Paperwork
 - Typical onboarding packets/forms
 - Follow-up forms

Employee Onboarding Paperwork

- a) Reduce the stress of HR employees and the new employee during the onboarding process
- b) Save Time - and the environment
 - a) Eliminate the tracking/handling of physical paper
 - b) Eliminate the storage of physical paper
- c) Reduce the time tracking down missing forms or form errors
- d) Creates a better first day for new hire

Frees HR personnel up to do more of the stuff that actually matters.

Employee Onboarding

Automation

- a) Quickly get employee documentation to the new employee via an email
- b) New employee can fill in at their own pace - leave and come back to where they were
- c) Fill out the forms on any device - Computer, tablet, smart phone
- d) Forms are easily routed internally to whoever needs to see them, or add information
- e) Electronic forms are pushed directly to electronic storage for future access and secure storage

Frees HR personnel up to do more of the stuff that actually matters.

The Solution

Electronic Document Management
(EDM) and
Electronic Forms Processing

According to research done
by Price Waterhouse
Coopers, the costs of paper
are staggering:

- Employees spend 15% of their time searching for documents
- The average filing cabinet costs $26,100 to purchase, fill and maintain
- Approximately 3 percent of all files are misfiled or lost
- Paper Records double every 3 years
- 70% of businesses would fail if they suffered catastrophic loss of paper-based documents due to fire or flood+.

eForms and workflow automation

SHOW OF HANDS!

- Who likes filling out paperwork?
- Who enjoys tracking down delinquent documents?
- Blurt it out: on average how much time do you spend on approvals?

eForm Processing

IN A NUTSHELL

- Electronic (non .pdf) versions of paper forms
- Intelligent workflow routing
- Automated form pathways
- As easy to use as a piece of paper

WHY?

- Easier than asking the secretary “who this form is supposed to be sent to”
- Limits time waste
- Expedites approval processes
- Built-in audit trails

HOW IS THIS ACHIEVED?

- Do you want to hire an entire IT team dedicated to form management & creation?
 - Probably not...
 - A. Costly
 - B. Training
 - C. Ramp-up time

HOW IS THIS ACHIEVED?

- Third party partner will perform the same document creation workflow automation task in a fraction of the time for significantly less cost
- You're hiring a team immediate experts on the subject matter
- Zero training or onboarding

YOUR ONBOARDING PROCESS CAN LOOK LIKE THIS:

- Fully customized eForm
- Completely automated workflow
- Absolute birds-eye view for admins
- Up to date on a process in real time
