C3P(O) Celebrated at the OPRA Spring Conference

C3P(O) Students from Franklin Heights, Medina, and Clermont Northeastern High Schools, along with those from Rushmore Academy traveled to the Nationwide Conference Center in Lewis Center, OH on April 6, 2018 to participate in the OPRA Spring Conference.

South-Western City School District Presented “Pioneer Award”

Pictured (L-R) are Bill Wise, Superintendent; Drew Huber, CBI Instructor; and Amy Schakat, Coordinator of Career Tech Education, along with Mark Davis, President of OPRA.

OPRA presented the South-Western City School District with a “Pioneer Award” for believing in the C3P(O) program and being the first in the nation to offer it to students at Franklin Heights High School, beginning with the 2015-16 school year.

Now in the third year of this partnership, Franklin Heights High School currently has 8 students working toward the Certificate of Initial Proficiency and 11 students working toward the Certificate of Advanced Proficiency.
A Special “Thank You” to Scott Osterfeld

Scott presented “We Need S’More Staff Like You” to the C3P(O) students at the OPRA Spring Conference.

Ohio Department of Developmental Disabilities’ Director John Martin

And

Ohio Department of Medicaid’s Director Barbars Sears

Speak to C3P(O) Students at the OPRA Spring Conference
C3P(O) Graduates Speak at OPRA Conference

Kelsey Goodman is a 2018 graduate of Franklin Heights High School. She is a member of the inaugural C3P(O) class and one of the first in the nation to graduate from high school with both the Certificate of Initial Proficiency and Certificate of Advanced Proficiency. She is currently employed with Columbus Center for Human Services.

Ellie Yuschak graduated in 2018 from Medina High School and earned the Certificate of Initial Proficiency. She is currently employed with SHC/The Arc of Medina County.

Thank You to all of our Provider Partners
- Columbus Center for Human Services
- Boundless
- ViaQuest
- Goodwill Columbus
- Resident Home Association of Marion
- Residential Concepts
- Self-Directed Living
- SHC/The Arc of Medina County
Franklin Heights High School

Rushmore Academy

Medina High School

Clermont Northeastern High School

For more information, contact Janice Hall at jhall@opra.org